Separations are always sad. I've always thought how great it would be if I were able to continue working with these people. But this parting does not mean that the bonds between us have disappeared. Even if Riot 6 is no longer around, my memories of it shall be etched forever within my heart. I think everyone else feels the same way as well. So when the next opportunity to meet up with everyone arises, I'll wear a resolved smile on my face, while reminiscing about those times with them. It has been 8 months since the disbandment of Riot 6.

Everyone now has missions of their own...

It was supposed to be a long-awaited day off until Fate and Teana were told that they had an emergency investigation mission.

You already made a promise to meet Subaru a while ago, right?
Will it really be fine if I don't come along for this mission?
I'll be able to take care of things at the scene on my own.

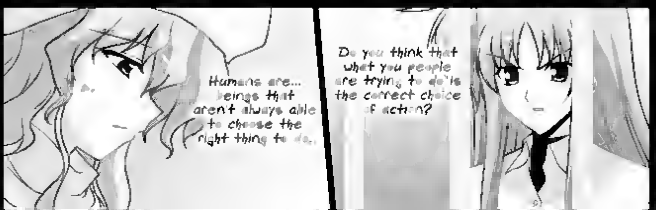
But that investigation would lead Fate to a terrifying situation. At that time...

Enforcer Fate T. Harlaown is reported missing while on duty.

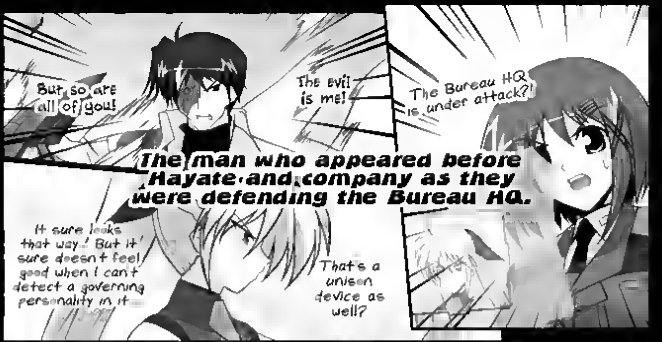
This was the trigger of a downward spiral of events.

The Bureau's defense was so easily...
Damn it! What the heck is up with these guys!?
Jeez, not even the Interdimensional Fleet can do anything...!?

Various divisions of the Bureau were attacked by a mysterious enemy.



Humans are... beings that aren't always able to choose the right thing to do.
Do you think that what you people are trying to do is the correct choice of action?



But, so are all of you!
The evil is me!
The Bureau HQ is under attack?!
The man who appeared before Hayate and company as they were defending the Bureau HQ.
It sure looks that way. But it sure doesn't feel good when I can't detect a governing personality in it.
That's a unisen device as well?

Nanoha and the Forwards of RF6 head off to rescue Fate.

But it was all too late.

Definitely, my master. We'll stay together even in the afterlife.
Is it really fine, Raising Heart?
Nanoha-chan! Don't!
Don't tell me...
Even if I have to stake my life on it!!
I'll show you how to stop that thing!
Blaster Mode Limiter Release. Using up all remaining cartridges.
Starlight Breaker Charge Counter Start.
